About BCI

The Better Cotton Initiative (BCI) — the largest cotton sustainability programme in the world — trained over two million farmers in 21 countries last season on more sustainable agricultural practices and aims make Better Cotton a mainstream sustainable commodity.

We are truly a joint effort, encompassing stakeholders all the way from farmers to fashion brands and civil society organisations, driving the cotton sector towards sustainability. BCI aims to transform cotton production worldwide by developing Better Cotton as a sustainable mainstream commodity.

About the Role

BCI seeks a motivated and organised individual to support core operations of the Communications Team. The role requires someone who is comfortable working in a fast-paced environment and is a quick learner. This position will support the Communications Team on key activities and projects. This is an excellent opportunity for someone who is passionate about sustainability and is interested in organisational communications.

Key Responsibilities

Media engagement support

- Review daily media monitoring reports and create initial drafts of the weekly summary.
- Support on quarterly media reporting to the wider organisation.
- Support the Senior Communications Manager to update and further develop the BCI media kit and digital press room.
- Set up media email updates as necessary for members and other stakeholders.
- Collect and update key figures and information for diverse media management activities.

Research, content support and updating information

- Proofread diverse content for the website and email marketing communications.
- Conduct desktop research and fact checking for key communications pieces and media monitoring purposes.
- Collect data and qualitative information for quarterly report that monitors progress against the Communications Team’s objectives.
- Update key facts, figures and messaging in the staff Communications Resource Library.
- Update PPT slides with the latest key messages and figures, whilst adhering to the brand guidelines.
- Update the BCI website as necessary.
- Work with the Membership Team to ensure that the most up-to-date Retailer and Brand Member logos are uploaded to the BCI website.
