Member Code of Practice

Our vision is a world where all cotton farming is sustainable.

Better Cotton’s mission is to help cotton communities to survive and thrive, while protecting and restoring the environment. Cotton farmers are at the centre of what we do.

General
Better Cotton is a not for profit multistakeholder membership association. It is politically neutral and it does not discriminate on any grounds.

Better Cotton is a pre-competitive initiative, and does not act in any way that can be construed as limiting competition. The members of Better Cotton (“Better Cotton Members”) abide by a strict anti-trust policy. Better Cotton does not set a premium, pricing of the commodity is a function of the market. The ultimate beneficiaries of Better Cotton’s actions are cotton farmers, cotton farm workers, cotton farming communities and the environment.

Better Cotton has a collaborative approach to other established sustainability initiatives, it complements, rather than competes with them. Better Cotton works alongside others to increase the amount of cotton produced in a more environmentally and socially sustainable way.

Code of Practice
Better Cotton Members are expected to act with integrity and not partake in any activity that could negatively impact the credibility of Better Cotton. This Code of Practice outlines areas in which internationally recognised best practice is expected. The Better Cotton Secretariat reserves the right to define best practice in case of dispute.

Not acting in accordance with this code may lead to the termination of membership in accordance with the Better Cotton Statutes and the Better Cotton Terms of Membership.

✉ Commitment and Conduct

They do not accept any form of harassment or discrimination on any grounds. They respect workers' rights to organise themselves and care for their health and safety.

Communication
Better Cotton Members are honest and transparent in their sustainability marketing and communication. They do not use unsubstantiated, or in other ways, misleading claims about Better Cotton or of the impact associated with it. They do not communicate on behalf of Better Cotton.

Sourcing
Better Cotton Members abide by applicable chain of custody guidelines as developed and implemented by Better Cotton, or otherwise recognised officially by Better Cotton.

Environmental compliance
Better Cotton Members are committed to (i) protecting the environment they operate in and (ii) adhering to, at a minimum, the local environmental laws for the location(s) in which they operate.

Credibility and Reputation
These are universal principles that Better Cotton has established for the credibility and wellbeing of its membership community, and to protect the reputation of the association and its members. Above and beyond these principles, if the Better Cotton Council deem that a particular entity, for whatever reason, poses a risk to credibility and/or reputation, Better Cotton reserves the right to protect the reputation of the association for purposes of supporting its mission.

Implementation of the Better Cotton Standard System, and other parts of the Better Cotton programme have their own rules of engagement, however, the above underpin behaviours expected from all members within the Better Cotton Community.
